Passcode: 513035

Join us for a presentation of Hawaii's Plantation Village's digitization project designed to preserve and provide access to its photograph collections.

Presenters:

Yoshiko Yamauchi, project director

Gina Vergara-Bautista, archivist

Clement Bautista, humanities scholar

Presentation will include an overview of the project from inception to its current status and will include photographs from the Friends of Waipahu Cultural Garden, Oahu Sugar Company, and Nobusonuke Murakoshi collections.

This project is funded, in part, by a grant from the Hawaii Council for the Humanities, through support from the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Any views, findings, conclusions, or recommendations expressed in this presentation do not necessarily represent those of the National Endowment for the Humanities.
